ENDORSES COMMISSION

President Mitchell Will Urge Acceptance of Arbitration.

PRESENTS MINERS SIDE OF QUESTION.

Strike Leader Forgives Operators For Grievances In Strike But Makes Some Open Charges.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The response of John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers to President Roosevelt's notification that he appointed a commission, has been made public. It informs him of the action of the executive boards of districts 1, 7 and 9, in calling a convention and agreeing to recommend unanimously the resumption of work and the submission of the differences between the operators and the mine workers of the anthracite coal fields to the commission.

The reply expresses confidence that the convention will agree to the arbitration of the eminent and impartial men, chosen by the president and expresses gratitude to the president for his patriotic efforts to bring about an honorable settlement of the strike. The reply goes at length into the grievances of the miners and concludes with the expression of the hope and belief that from this arbitration will come a "complete satisfactory and permanent solution of the troubles which vexed the anthracite field from time immemorial."

The dispatch of President Roosevelt formally notifies Mr. Mitchell of the members of the commission and urges that the miners accept the plan and return to work without unnecessary delay.

In his answer Mr. Mitchell states that he and the district presidents are glad to know that the operators have retired from their untenable position and would accept a modified proposition for the arbitration of the coal strike.

Mr. Mitchell's Answer.

Further he says: "It will be remembered that we proposed on Oct 3 to place the whole matter in your hands and to accept a verdict of a tribunal of your own selection. It will also be remembered that the company managers at that time refused to accept the arbitration of the president of the United States and preferred that of the local common pleas judges. We proposed to leave everything to you without condition or reservation, having the utmost faith in your impartiality and good judgment. In their refusal to accept your arbitration the operators sought to hold you in part accountable for the very conditions which you were trying to remedy and to instruct you as to your duties concerning them. Eight days later they again appeared before you dropping the common pleas judge and proposing to abide by the verdict of a tribunal appointed by you, but attempting to prescribe within fixed and narrow limits the character and vocation of the men you were to name. To this proposition, as the operators made it, we were unalterably opposed. First, because our respect for you as a man and our ideas as to what is due to the dignity of your office demanded that we should not be a party to a request of you to accept this great responsibility accompanied by detailed and impertinent restrictions as to the manner in which you should meet it; second, because careful analysis of their proposition disclosed to us, as it did to you and the public, that the restrictions were too narrow and to enable you to secure under them a well-balanced and thoroughly impartial tribunal."

Mr. Mitchell says that if the offer of arbitration made six months ago by the miners had been accepted there would have been no strike. The motives of the leaders of the organization have been impugned and he states that while he forgives the operators for false accusations, he insists they were groundless. The object of the organization is to secure, says Mr. Mitchell, better conditions for both operators and miners, a fair division of profits, and an amicable relation between employers and employees.

Insanity Expert Stricken.

Columbus, O., Oct. 17.—Dr. Eugene G. Carpenter, superintendent of Columbus State hospital, and one of the best known insanity experts in the state, was stricken by apoplexy. He is in a precarious condition.

Fur Robbery.

Cleveland, Oct. 17.—Burglars raided the fur store of W. Banks, and took away practically the entire stock of goods in the place. The stolen furs were valued at $5,000.

CRITICISE HAGUE TRIBUNAL.

Decision In Plus Fund Case Is Hard Pill For Mexico.

City of Mexico, Oct. 17.—El Templo clerical daily paper here commenting sharply on the decision from The Hague tribunal in the matter of the Plus fund, says the court might have condemned Mexico to pay an amount which would have ruined her without hesitation, and parodying the celebrated phrase, "Let nations perish, but let principles survive," as if the future of the country were to be subordinated to the prejudices of four old men buried in their studies and who do not know through how many years of self-sacrifice Mexico has had to pass to accumulate the sum in question, which is intended to use to give increased impetus to its progress, but which by a stroke of the pen it is forced to deliver to California bishops, who as the arbitrators well know will employ it in anything but improvement of the unfortunate Indians in whose behalf they have claimed it.

El Imperial, a Liberal morning paper, comments at length on the decision, which it says proves that the arbitrators were, though highly respectable, not superhuman, although they made a significantly meritorious effort to be impartial in declaring the interest must be paid in silver.

Claim Fever Suspects Hid.

Guayaquil, Ecuador, Oct. 17.—A conflict between the Pacific Steam Navigation company and the board of health here, the latter having refused to permit the sailing of the steamer Guatemala for Panama unless the company pays the fine which was imposed on four of its steamers, because as alleged, the company deceived the board by hiding yellow fever cases on the vessel in question. The company has issued a protest, refuses to pay the fine and has notified the government that it will claim $750 daily as damages for the steamer's detention, without prejudice to other claims which it may make for damages on other grounds.

Compulsory Use of Pure Coffee.

New York, Oct. 17.—The International Coffee commission in session here recommends that all government producing and consuming countries shall cause the compulsory use of pure coffee in the armies and navies; establish demonstrating depots and prohibit the sale of adulterated coffee and of substitutes bearing the name of coffee, and in case this prohibition cannot be enforced, that a heavy duty be imposed on such articles. Reports were submitted by delegates from the various South American countries and Mexico dealing with the cultivation and marketing of their coffee crops.

On Board the Cincinnati.

Port-au-Prince, Haiti, Oct. 17.—The report that M. Firmin, the revolutionary leader, had embarked on the United States cruiser Cincinnati, is confirmed. The troops of the provisional government surround Gonaves, the headquarters of the revolutionists. The Cincinnati, the French cruiser D'Assas and the German cruiser Felke are off Gonaves for the protection of foreign interests. It is hoped that the revolutionists will surrender Gonaves and thus save the town from the damage and loss of life which must result if the government troops are compelled to attack the place.

Situation Under Control.

Constantinople, Oct. 17.—The military authorities at Mitrovitz, Albania, have secured complete control of the situation. They have captured Chief Issa Boljethaz, who, with his followers, recently tore up the railroad between Mitrovitz and Vuchitln and announced his determination not to allow the newly-appointed Russian consul to take up his duties at the former place. The chief has been taken to Salonica under escort. The Albanians at Mitrovitz and in its neighborhood have been disarmed and the Russian consul will occupy his office shortly.

Trains Collide.

Ironton, O., Oct. 17.—The westbound express on the Norfolk and Western railway collided with an eastbound freight near Portsmouth in a heavy fog. Both engines were demolished. Engineer Haynes of the passenger train, suffered a broken jaw and other injuries about the head. Engineer Brown of the freight had his ankle broken. Eighteen passengers were badly shaken up, many being cut and bruised. The wreck was caused by the freight engine projecting over the siding onto the main track.

Engine Turned Over.

Bridgeport, O., Oct. 17.—At Crescent, two miles from here, two Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling engines running together, struck a broken rail and turned completely over. Both engines were wrecked, but only Engineer Al Burk was injured and he only slightly.

KILLED HIS PARTNERS

Triple Tragedy Enacted In Prominent New York Office.

SHOOTS TWO MEN, THEN SUICIDES.

William C. Turner, Alleged Defaulter, Instantly Kills His Associates and Sends Bullet Into His Brain.

New York, Oct. 17.—William C. Turner shot and killed Albert Hamilton of Pittsburg and W. J. Mallard in the office of the law firm of Cantor, Adams and McIntyre, and then committed suicide. Turner was at one time treasurer of the Climax Bottling company, in which the other two men were interested and they had met to effect a settlement growing out of an alleged default on the part of Turner. During the conference a heated discussion arose and Turner, drawing a revolver, killed Hamilton and then turning the weapon upon himself, committed suicide. Turner came from Mt. Vernon, New York.

Turner was also president of the bottling company and it is alleged that he was a defaulter to the sum of $5,000 in his accounts and he met his victims by appointment to effect a settlement. A member of the law firm in whose office the shooting occurred, that the three had been in conference. Turner said: "Well, here's a check for $5,000." With that he put his hand in his pocket, flashed out a revolver and fired point-blank at Hallard. Hamilton made a jump for Turner and grappled with him, but Turner succeeded in turning his revolver on Hamilton and killed him. Before any one could get into the room the murderer killed himself.

Turner had told of what the experts had found in his accounts and was informed that he would have to settle or be prosecuted by law. Several conferences were held between the law firm and Turner, in which Mr. McIntyre, who is the ex-assistant district attorney, took an active part. Turner at last agreed to pay the money and a meeting was arranged in the lawyer's office. When Turner arrived he asked for McIntyre, who was out. After a short talk, Turner said that he had a check with him, but it was not certified. He then said he would get it certified and would bring it to the office. Previous to the shooting there was a long conference, which, it is believed, was very unpleasant on both sides. Lawyer Lefteritt, Turner's counsel, who was also present, finally turned around and asked Turner for the check. Turner replied that he would produce it, but instead, drew the revolver. He then fired two shots, killing Mallard almost instantly. No one who was in the room could tell how Hamilton was shot. From the position of his body, it would appear that he tried to stop Turner's purpose to kill. He also was shot in the head. Turner then placed the revolver in his right ear and pulled the trigger. His death was instantaneous.

Was Popularly Known.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 17.—W. J. Mallard was one of the best known young men in Atlanta. He was prominent in real estate, political and social circles, the son of a well known lawyer, and a man of many friends. He was president of the Young Men's Democratic league at the time William Jennings Bryan visited Atlanta.

Apostolic Delegates Leave.

Rome, Oct. 17.—Archbishop Guidi, the apostolic delegate in the Philippines and his secretary, Father O'Connor, have started for Marsailles, from which port they will sail for Manila. They were bidden farewell at the railroad station by a large gathering of distinguished vatican officials, heads of religious bodies and representatives of the ministers accredited to the vatican. The archbishop has taken with him all his episcopal robes, as he intends to enter Manila in full state.

Will Petition to Vatican.

Cincinnati, Oct. 17.—A petition will shortly be sent to Rome asking for the appointment of coadjutor in Cincinnati archdiocese for Archbishop William Henry Elder. The venerable archbishop has been in the priesthood 56 years and is the oldest member of the American hierarchy. He will soon celebrate his 84th birthday. Bishops Horstman of Cleveland, Maes of Covington, and Moeller of Columbus, are mentioned for the place and the succession to the archbishopric.

Caught In Shafting.

Columbus, O., Oct. 17.—Earl Dowd, 18, was frightfully mangled by being caught in a shafting at the Wolfe shoe factory. His condition is critical.

TREATY REQUEST DENIED.

Alliance Between Turkey and Russia Considered Very Improbable.

Vienna, Oct. 17.—The Austria-Hungarian foreign office entirely discredits the report telegraphed from Bucharest, Romania, to the London Daily Mail that Russia has proposed to Turkey a revival of Unklar-Skelessi treaty of 1833, which established a Russian alliance, under the terms of which the government of Turkey undertook at Russia's request to exclude in time of war all foreign warships from the Black sea, which Russia undertook at Turkey's request to furnish her aid by land and sea if necessary. It is pointed out at the foreign office here that all the European powers are concerned in the existing treaties governing the passage of the Dardanelles by foreign warships and that it is impossible for Russia to modify them without the consent of the co-signatories.

The Austrian ambassador at Constantinople has also assured the foreign office in this city that no political matters were discussed during the visit of the sultan of the Grand Duke Nicholas of Russia, who is said to have made the proposition referred to.

Government's Crop Summary.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The department of agriculture's summary of the crops of the world shows that owing to the remarkably cool and wet summer, experienced throughout a considerable part of Europe, the harvest of 1902 is one of the latest on record. The promise of abundant yield, therefore, has been only partly fulfilled in Europe, allowing for grain gathered in a damaged condition and for that actually spoiled. In cases of broad and grains there will be a demand among millers in the countries so suffering for good, dry grain to mix with the home product. The semi-official Russian estimate makes the wheat, rye, barley and oats crop of that country not only larger than in 1901, but exceeding the average for the five years 1896-1900. Throughout about four-fifths of the German empire harvesting was delayed by frequent rains and there was still much grain in the fields in the middle of September. The Austrian official figures say that wheat and barley are good average crops; while rye is only medium to good medium. From Hungary, the official report received at the department here shows that maize has suffered from drouth in some districts.

Wright Cannot Vote.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Carroll D. Wright as recorder of the commission to arbitrate the anthracite coal mine trouble will not have a vote. The following unauthoritative statement is made: "The commission is so constituted that it will require a two-thirds vote to settle any point upon which there is a dispute. That means that Colonel Wright is not to be regarded as a member of the commission in passing upon questions at issue before it." An official of the war department with a great deal of experience said: "In all military boards and courts the recorder has no vote, but he is the man who runs the board." Colonel Wright will keep the records, summon witnesses, carry out the orders of the commission and perhaps, prepare its report under instructions.

Priestess Suicides.

New York, Oct. 17.—Ida C. Craddock, known as the priestess and pastor of the Church of Yoga, who was to have appeared in the United States court for sentence for sending obscene literature through the mails, committed suicide by inhaling gas. Miss Craddock served a three months' sentence in this state, was convicted in Chicago and arrested in Philadelphia and Washington for similar offenses to the one she was to have been sentenced for here.

Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 17.—Frank Strong, former president of the Oregon State university, has been installed as chancellor of the University of Kansas. The exercises were largely attended by the alumni and several noted educators were present. Arthur T. Hadley, president of Yale was the leading speaker.

To Follow Mitchell.

Mount Carmel, Pa., Oct. 17.—Twenty meetings of the locals of the United Mine Workers have been held in this region and delegates to the Wilkesbarre convention were chosen. In most every instance the delegates were instructed to follow the advice of President Mitchell and the district officers.

Town Has Surrendered.

Port-au-Prince, Haiti, Oct. 17.—The foreign consuls at Gonaves, the headquarters of the revolutionists, have brought about the capitulation of that town and it was subsequently occupied by the government troops without any disorder.

TO PURCHASE BONDS.

Secretary Shaw Wires Instructions to Treasury Department.

TWENTY MILLION DOLLARS RELEASE.

Five Million Are Already Contracted For at Advanced Price. Insufficient Bank Reserve.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Secretary Shaw has telegraphed instructions from Chicago to the treasury department to give notice that he will purchase for the sinking fund Saturday any United States four per cent bonds of the loan of 1925 and pay for them at the rate of 137½ and interest to date of purchase. The department will also accept the bonds of the same issue until the close of business Monday, Oct. 29, and pay therefore as of Saturday. This will give an opportunity to any one to sell at the same price who may not be able to make immediate delivery. Bonds may be presented to the treasury department, division of loans and currency or at the office of the assistant treasurer of the United States at Chicago and New York.

In this connection the department makes the announcement that Secretary Shaw, when he was in Washington last Monday, secured the option on $5,000,000 of four per cent bonds of 1925 at 138 flat and this offer has been accepted.

Will Release $20,000,000.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Secretary of the Treasury Shaw was at the Auditorium hotel, and in referring to the treasury offer to purchase United States bonds, as announced from Washington, said that the purchase will aggregate at least $15,000,000 face value, which will release a little over $20,000,000. What few bonds there are held either by trust estates that would not be released at any price, or by those who need neither the money nor the interest and prefer to hold the government securities. So soon as the government becomes a purchaser, prices advance. Conditions which have made the purchase of bonds advisable are by no means local. The September statement revealed the fact that the banks of Lincoln, Neb., which should have had 25 per cent reserve, had less than 19 per cent and the banks of Des Moines, which should have had 25 per cent, had less than 20 per cent. While the money for the bonds has gone largely to eastern holders, it will very naturally find its way into all channels of trade.

Miners Selecting Delegates.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 17.—All the locals throughout the anthracite coal fields are engaged in electing delegates to the Mine Workers' convention to be held in the Nesbitt theater here next Monday for the purpose of considering the acceptance of the plan of arbitration submitted by President Roosevelt. These meetings are being held in accordance with the call sent out by the three executive boards. There is nothing on the surface at this time to indicate that the arbitration scheme will not be accepted. President Mitchell knows the sentiment of the men and would not have agreed to the proposition had he any doubt a delegate convention would not ratify his action. There will be objections raised on the floor of the convention to certain features of the plan, but they will not be of a serious nature. "It would be a remarkable body," said one union official, "if 800 men in convention were of the same mind on all features of this labor struggle." Of the many obstacles to be surmounted by the union is that of finding work immediately for all the strikers. Every man was to have his old place back, but as the companies have decided to take care of all men who have stood by them during the strike, there will be some disappointments. This matter will be fought out on the floor of the convention. Officers of the union confidently believe that it will be amicably adjusted. It is probable the delegates will decide to care for all men who are not given work at once.

Serious Play.

Hampton, O., Oct. 17.—Elizabeth Pfau, 10, was nearly killed while playing "crack-the-whip." She was on the end, when she collided with a little boy. Their heads struck violently and she was unconscious for six hours. It is now thought she will recover.

Jumped In Delirium.

Bellefontaine, O., Oct. 17.—P. W. Shipley, an aged machinist of Bellefontaine, received serious injuries by leaping from a second-story window of his home while in delirium from illness of long duration.

While the Republican campaign orators are talking of the great benefit of protection to the American laborer it might be well to notice the statistical history of the world on the relation of protection and wage schedules. A study of this history will reveal a marvelous discrepancy between it and the claim of the high protectionist on the wage schedules of the high protected industries. Russia has the highest protective system of Europe and the lowest schedules of wages. Austria, Germany and France follow in regular order, and that one with the lower tariff in each case pays higher wages, and the much dreaded "free trade England" has for forty years paid higher wages than any other country of the Eastern hemisphere.

AN OBJECT LESSON IN TARIFF ROBERTY.

Senator Harris, of Kansas, recently returned from a trip to Europe. While in London he found in a shoe store exactly the same American-made shoe which he buys here. In paying for it he was surprised to learn that it was just 20 per cent. cheaper than the home price. The Senator bought an extra pair of the shoes and will wear them during the rest of the campaign. He believes the exhibit will prove a practical and unanswerable Democratic argument against the present tariff. "Everything of American make is cheaper abroad than in this country," said the Senator. "My work for the St. Louis Exposition took me to all the great stock farms, and I was particular to ask what the Englishmen paid for American farming machinery, pitchforks, hatchets and other necessities of farm management, and I found that they paid a great deal less than I am forced to pay in Kansas City for the same articles. It seems a very great injustice and imposition for American citizens to be forced to pay such high prices here, when foreigners secure the same things at a much lower rate.

"It is the high tariff that is to blame. The American manufacturer says that he must be protected against the foreigner. This is not true. He has nothing to fear from the foreign manufacturer, because he is successfully invading the foreign market. Neither is it true that the American goods which are sold abroad are surplus. The American manufacturer is selling his goods at a fair profit abroad and at a tremendous profit at home. What is the remedy? It seems to me that it would be very easy to lower the tariff, and that would give the American consumer an opportunity to purchase American goods at a decent price, and, if necessary, the American manufacturer could raise the price slightly abroad. Something, however, ought to be done. The present condition of affairs is not just to the American consumer, and I don't believe the American consumer will stand it much longer. Something is radically wrong when I can buy American shoes abroad for less than I pay for them here, notwithstanding the fact that freight for 3,000 miles had to be paid upon them."

GRAYSON TRIBUNE EDITOR WAY OFF.

The bill introduced in Congress by Representative Kehoe to "extend the provisions of the act of 1890 to Kentucky State Militia and Provisional Kentucky Militia" was introduced at the special instance and urgent request of one of the most strenuous Republicans of the Ninth district, a prominent citizen of the county from which the Republican Congressional nominee hails. The editor of the Grayson Tribune may not know this, but he ought to post himself a little better on matters about which he makes such broad and positive statements—statements that are not true, and that the Tribune editor ought to have known were not true when he uttered them.

In the Tribune's article, republished a few days ago in the BULLETIN, the editor of the Tribune makes the statement that this bill was "one of his (Kehoe's) pet measures," and that its real object was to pay the "Mason Guards" of Maysville "for the time they served up to the time they left to join the South." To use the Tribune's own words the bill was "to pay

Is easy here. It's more. It's a genuine pleasure. Good taste has crowned the following fabrics, with flattering enthusiasm:

75c. Black Goods.

Two desirable weaves—Creme Cheviot and Etamine—jet black—forty-five inches wide. In style and service they meet the approval of all practical women. Often sold elsewhere for $1.

$1 Canvas-Cheviot.

A fabric with the mesh looseness of canvas and the firmness of cheviot. The combination is ideal. Fifty inches wide. Black and colors.

$1 Broadcloth.

The fabric has not yet been produced that can rival Broadcloth. It never clings to the outer edge of fashion either, but always holds a central place. Black and six colors. Fifty-four inches.

$1 Oxford Suiting.

You couldn't find better at $1.50. It has the weight and the wear resisting quality that guarantees satisfaction from first to last.

$1 Tweed Suitings.

Exactly right for tailored frocks or separate skirts and coats. Six tones of the Oxford black—dark, medium, light gray. Fifty-four inches.

Stripes, checks, brocades, jacquard effects on invisible plaid grounds and soft satins are in the list of fancy silks while peau de soie, peau de cygne and all that family have lost no prestige. The separate waist is omnipresent and its handsomest making is in silk.

D. HUNT & SON

a lot of men who were disloyal to their country and practiced deception to obtain guns to turn against the country."

A reading of the bill in question shows the falsity of the Tribune's statements, for it plainly specifies that the provisions of the act of 1890 be extended "to include the officers and privates of the Kentucky State Militia and the Provisional Kentucky Militia, organized for the defense of the Union in Kentucky during the War of the Rebellion who served ninety days or more in any of the military organizations during the said war and were honorably discharged therefrom."

Instead of the bill being one of Mr. Kehoe's "pet measures" and intended to pay the "Mason Guards," the measure as we stated above, was prepared and introduced at the urgent request of one of Boyd County's leading citizens and most strenuous Republicans, a gentleman who was an officer in the Federal army, and who is, if we mistake not, a member of the G. A. R. at the present time. The prominent Republican and ex-Federal officer, in urging the passage of the bill, had no thought of the "Mason Guards" at all, and we have it from Mr. Kehoe that he himself never received a scratch of a pen from any citizen or ex-citizen of Mason County asking for the passage of the bill, and that no resident of the county ever spoke a word to him in regard to the measure. In urging the passage of the bill the Boyd County Republican and ex-Federal officer simply did so as an act of simple justice to a large number of persons living in his section of the State who served during the war in the militia mentioned.

The editor of the Tribune could have obtained this information had he been disposed to be just and fair, but it seems he preferred to distort the measure, and use it if possible to stir up anew the bitter animosities of the war, and by thus appealing to the old sectional feeling make a little political capital for his party in the present campaign. He is hard up indeed for campaign material. He must feel very small when he contrasts his distorted version of this measure with the magnanimous spirit of leading members of the G. A. R. who by expressions and actions have shown that with them at least the animosities of the of the war have been buried.

Mr. Girard Fowke, a careful and scientific observer, writes in regard to the so-called "glacial man" found near Lansing, Kansas: "He is old," no doubt about that. The biggest flood in the Mississippi does not reach the level of his resting place, and he is twenty-two feet under the surface. He was certainly planted before the loess was deposited. Mr. Fowke is an old citizen of Mason County.

One of the most charming books of the season is "Homespun Odds and Ends," recently issued by a Western publishing house. The author, Mr. John A. Collins, is a prominent lawyer of Pueblo, and seems to have inherited the fine talent of his family not only for his chosen vocation, but for brilliancy and cleverness in literary work. There are passages in the modest little book that would not discredit the author of the "Dream Life" or the busy barrieter who threw off without apparent effort the fascinating pages of "Obiter Dicta." The author of "Homespun Odds and Ends" is a son of our accomplished and versatile friend, Hon. C. H. Collins, of Ohio.

MISS IDA M. SNYDER,

Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club.

MENSTRUAL irregularities are generally the beginning of a woman's troubles. With the vitality at a low ebb, the blood weakened, the digestion disordered, she goes about pale-faced, hollow-eyed and haggard, a piteous contrast to the blooming health of her former self. But over 1,000,000 women have found health again by taking Wine of Cardui.

Miss Ida M. Snyder.

As a regulator of the menstrual periods Wine of Cardui has never been known to fail. It has seldom failed to restore perfect health, even in the most persistent and aggravated case of weakness. Miss Ida M. Snyder, of No. 535 Bergen Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., has used Wine of Cardui and she says it helped her into a new life. Health to Miss Snyder is worth a great deal. She is an attractive young woman with intellectual attainments and she occupies the position of Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club. This position marks her as a person of intellect, culture and refinement and it speaks highly of the respect and trust her fellow women have in her. She writes:

"If women would pay more attention to their health we would have more happy wives, mothers and daughters, and if they would use more intelligence in the matter of medicines, observing results, they would find that the doctors' prescriptions do not perform the many cures they are given credit for.

"In consulting with my druggist he advised McElree's Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught, and so I took it and have every reason to thank him for a new life opened up to me with restored health, and it only took three months to cure me."

You may secure the same relief as Miss Snyder, if you take Wine of Cardui as she took it. Thedford's Black-Draught is the companion medicine of Wine of Cardui and it is a liver and bowel regulator which assists greatly in effecting a cure. If you take these medicines according to directions, the relief and cure is simple. Some cases are cured quickly and others take longer because the disease has run longer. Remember how Miss Snyder took Wine of Cardui and has health. The same medicines are offered you to-day.

The Fred Wilson that lost so many barges at Twelve Pole passed down at noon Friday, with the remnant of her tow. Most of the Pittsburg fleet have succeeded in getting past the wreck by double-tripping.

There is a probability that an independent Cincinnati-Pomeroy packet will soon be placed in operation. It is reported that Captain Samuel Dunbar, of Gallipolis, would enter a boat in that trade. According to the report, Captain Dunbar holds an option for the chartering of the steamer Hudson, now at the bank without a trade.

"The Power of Truth."

Each season in the theatrical world brings forth some new genius as a playwright, and this season Kate Mortimer, long identified as a serial story writer, comes to the front as a dramatist, with a powerful melodrama, dealing with life in that State of so many romances, Indiana. The promoter of this enterprise, Henry C. Jacobs, favorably known as a high class theatrical manager, has induced this young woman to dramatize some of her most famous stories, and the result has been a delightful romance, "The Power of Truth," will be seen for the first time in Maysville next Monday night at the opera house. Seats now on sale at Nelson's.

Card of Thanks.

While reflecting over the horrors of the past week, realizing more fully every day that I've lost the dearest of earth—my husband—I take this means to express my sincere thanks to the many sympathetic friends who did so much in that tragic hour to assist and comfort me, assuring them that I shall ever hold them in grateful remembrance.

MRS. ANNA OWSLEY, Mayslick, Ky.

The worries of a weak and sick mother are only begun with the birth of her child. By the day her work is constantly interrupted and at night her rest is broken by the wailing of the peevish, puny infant. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It lightens all the burdens of maternity, giving to mothers strength and vigor, which they impart to their children. In over thirty years of practice Dr. Pierce and his associate staff of nearly a score of physicians have treated and cured more than half a million suffering women. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free of charge. All correspondence is strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.
